VANCOUVER SCHOOL BOARD.

Estimates For the Year More Than Eighty-five Thousand Dollars.

Vancouver, Jan. 30.—(Special)—At a meeting of the school board last night, the estimates for the year were adopted. The total amount required is $85,500—about $13,000 in excess of the expenditure for the previous year. Among the correspondence read was a letter from Lord Roberts, thanking the board for naming one of the new schools in Vancouver after him.

Gorgeous Pageant

Procession in London Will be One of the Greatest Ever Witnessed.

Business of Every Description Will be Suspended on Saturday.

Even the Markets and the Restaurants Will be Shut During the Funeral.

Cowes, Jan. 30.—King Edward arrived here soon after 4 o'clock. Count von Eulenberg, Emperor William's grand court marshal, accompanied him. A large crowd of spectators was present.

London, Jan. 30.—The King of Greece, the Duke of Sparta and the Grand Duke of Baden reached Victoria station at 5 o'clock. They were received by Prince Charles of Denmark and members of the King's household. The visitors proceeded to Marlborough House.

During the morning King Edward presided at a meeting of the Privy council. The business transacted was of a formal character. The King signed a proclamation suspending business on Saturday throughout the United Kingdom. The closing will be so complete that even restaurants and saloons will be shut up for four or five hours in the middle of the day. Some of the afternoon newspapers will not be published on Saturday.

The procession in London, as indicated by the war office orders, issued this evening, will be a gorgeous military pageant. Detachments of troops, with a great number of distinctive uniforms, embracing all ranks of the service, will make a constantly changing picture. The uniforms of the great armies of the world will appear, for in addition to the brilliant entourage of visiting kings and princely envoys, there will be the military attaches of the embassies and legations.

All the field marshals of the British army able to endure the fatigue, will ride with their staffs. The naval corps will also take part in the procession, which will be two miles long.

Londoners are just awakening to the fullest proportion of obsequies, and the result of the days of mourning, which is an undertaking which has begun to be fully appreciated by the police; but the public of London is dismayed to find that all the great markets, Covent Garden, Smithfield and others, where the food of the nation is supplied, are to be absolutely closed at the end of the week.

Restaurants and bars will be shut, and the crowds will have to wander in the streets. London is a world in itself, living from head to foot. The closing of the accustomed avenues for the supply and distribution of food, drink and amusement from Friday till Monday will mean a loss and inconvenience difficult to appreciate. London has never before had a day when the police and military are to protect, and the apprehensions of Saturday's crush are enough to appal Londoners; but apparently these considerations do not deter thousands from flocking to the metropolis.

AT WINDSOR.

Windsor, Jan. 31.—Rehearsals of the distinctive features of the obsequies are occurring constantly. Practically the whole borough will be draped in mourning, whereas, elsewhere, only the route of the procession will be thus marked. The services in St. George's chapel begin at 2 o'clock. The body is expected to arrive at Windsor at 1:30 p.m. The route to the chapel, which occupies half an hour, will be lined by troops two deep, the Eton Volunteers participating with the Guards. The service will be the ordinary service used for the burial of the dead, with special music. The choir will sing from the altar steps, whence also the Garter King of Arms will announce the death of the sovereign and all her rights and titles. Accommodation has been reserved on the left of the coffin for the prince. The King and other crowned heads will stand at its head. The service on Saturday will be conducted by the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Bishop of Winchester and the Dean of Windsor. The Archbishop of York and the Bishop of Oxford will be present. The interment on Monday will be conducted by the Bishop of Winchester and the Dean of Windsor.

Masses of flowers, in crosses and crowns, from rare blossoms, that are the gifts of royal personages, down to humble bouquets sent in by children, several thousands of floral pieces, including tokens from most members of aristocracy, numerous clubs, country towns, cities, regiments, inmates of workhouses, and even the smallest nosegays, are laid out for public view, side by side with the designs of the great florists. Some of the flowers are fading.

DEWET IN CAPE COLONY.

Unofficial Report That He Has Entered With Fairly Strong Force.

London, Jan. 31.—It is reported unofficially, says the Capetown correspondent of the Daily Mail, that Gen. Dewet has entered Cape Colony with a fairly strong force. The impatience felt in Great Britain at the slow progress of operations is not warranted, as preparations are being made for a general movement shortly.

DUKE OF ORLEANS.

He Will Attend the Funeral of the Queen.

Paris, Jan. 30.—The Duke of Orleans has decided to attend the funeral of Queen Victoria. He will arrive in London on Saturday, and on Sunday will deposit a wreath on the casket containing Her Majesty's remains. The Duke's decision is interesting in view of his message of congratulations to the Paris artist who caricatured Queen Victoria in a most insulting manner, which resulted in the Duke being ostracized in England.

A WATER FIGHT.

Conflict of Interest Over Power on Pend d'Oreille River.

Rossland, Jan. 30.—A conflict of interest has arisen among various claimants to the water-power of the Pend d'Oreille river, so that litigation is threatened. A New York company, said to be backed by large capital, has located a mill site and water right on both sides of the river, while another interest claims the title to the Kootenay Hydraulic Company, which, however, it is asserted, only owns an old building and some machinery abandoned several years ago, and which owns no mill-site or water rights.

The Memorial Service Trouble

Official Denial That Lord Minto Acted on His Own Responsibility.

Saturday Has Been Proclaimed a Public Holiday for the Dominion.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—The following official communication from Government House has been made to the newspapers, called forth by statements in certain papers that the government had vetoed the state ceremonies on Saturday because Lord Minto was arranging for the function on his own responsibility:

"In reference to the memorial service, we are authorized to contradict the statement that the Governor-General had arranged for a state funeral at Christ Church cathedral, independently of the advice of his ministers. We are informed that the proposed arrangements were fully considered by His Excellency, together with his advisers, and approved by them."

In response to a request of the Bankers' Association, the government will issue a proclamation to-morrow declaring Saturday a public holiday.

The Free Press, Liberal organ, cannot endorse the position taken by the government in this matter. It says it is a pity that the religious ceremonies arranged for Saturday should be marred by petty differences, which are insignificant in details, and that narrow-mindedness and phariseism of the most paltry character should be permitted to mar the solemnity of the occasion. Correspondents of government organs have been authorized to confirm the announcement made some days ago that the Senate chaplaincy has been abolished.

wet-blanket a solemn rite which commands itself to all thinking people.

The memorial service will be held in the corps organized for special service in South Africa who have pay due them from Imperial funds are informed that pay-sheets of the squadron, battery or company to which they belong have been sent to St. John's to be checked. When these pay-sheets are returned, all claims will be promptly adjusted. In the meantime the men are assured that their claims have not been overlooked. Officers and men having claims against the Canadian government in connection with their services in South Africa, being promoted or reduced in rank in the field, must submit their claims, which will receive immediate attention. Claims against the Imperial government should be made separate from those against the Canadian government.

FARMERS MEET AT NANAIMO

Institute Elects Officers and Takes Action on Import-ant Questions.

From Our Own Correspondent.

Nanaimo, Jan. 30.—(Special)—At the annual meeting of the Farmers' Institute this afternoon, the officers elected were: President, Rev. C. Taylor; vice-president, W. Gray, Gabriola; secretary, J. Stewart; directors, Messrs. Thomas Pillar, Macgargile, York and Perry. The institute received a deputation from the board of trade, with a view to re-establishing a market in Nanaimo, on the same lines as Westminster. A resolution was adopted guaranteeing the market every assistance in the power of the institute. Secretary Stewart offered a prize of $12 for the best quarter-acre of corn grown for exchange. The institute offered a second prize of $8 in the same class. Fifteen new members have joined already this year. Messrs. York and Gray were elected auditors, and Mr. Hickey, of French Creek, representative to the Central Institute. A Good Roads Association branch was then formed, and elected as officers, president, A. L. Cocking; vice-president, Mr. Macgargile, and Mr. York secretary.

A new morning paper starts here on March 1. The Cumberland football team cannot come to-morrow to play Nanaimo, and the match is postponed till Thursday next.

The Mayor has issued a proclamation declaring Saturday a civic day of mourning for the burial of the Queen.

Warships Gathering

A Mighty Fleet Will Line the Funeral Route to Spit-head.

Battleships and Cruisers Will be Moored Two and a Half Cables Apart

Minute Guns Will be Fired Until the Alberta Reaches Port-mouth.

Portsmouth, Jan. 30.—The warships are assembling for Friday's great naval pageant. The arrangements which have been completed provide that eight torpedo boats will lead the procession from Cowes, followed by the royal yacht Alberta, with the Queen's body on board. The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, with King Edward and Queen Alexandra and the Royal Family; the royal yacht Osborne, with other royalties; the imperial yacht Hohenzollern, with Emperor William, the Duke and Duchess of Connaught; and the admiralty yacht Enchantress and a Trinity House yacht, with the officials on board.

The main squadron of battleships and cruisers will be moored two and a half cables in one line, the Channel fleet, under the command of Vice-Admiral Sir Henry Houldsworth Rawson, will form a stern portion, and the reserve fleet, under Rear-Admiral Sir Gerard Henry Noel, will form the western portion. The foreign war vessels are to be moored southwest of the British ships in the order of their arrival and alongside of them will be moored eight British gunboats, the Antelope, Gleaner, Leda, Rat-densake, Alert, Circe, Shipjack and Speedwell.

After leaving Trinity pier, the Alberta, with her attendant escort, will steam along the deep channel between the coast of the Isle of Wight and the single line of battleships and cruisers. The main line will be as follows: Beginning at Cowes: Alexandra, Camperdown, Rodney, Benbow, Collingwood, Colossus, Sanspareil, Nile, Howe, Melampus, Severn, Galathea, Bellona, Pachelius, Pelorus, Diana, Conqueror, Arrogant, Minerva, Niobe, Hero, Hood, Trafalgar, Resolution, Jupiter, Hannibal, Mars, Prince George and Majestic. On arrival at Portsmouth the royal yachts will remain in the harbor that night.

Minute guns will be fired by all ships in the Solent and at Cowes commencing when the Alberta leaves the pier; each ship will be directed to cease firing immediately after the tail of the procession has passed her.

After the procession has passed, the Majestic, the forts and ships in Portsmouth harbor will commence firing minute guns, and battleships and cruisers will be directed to cease firing immediately after the tail of the procession has passed her. The bands are to play the funeral marches of Chopin and Beethoven only. No national anthem will be played.

On the approach of the procession the ships will be manned and the guards and bands will be paraded. The officers will wear full dress and the men "No. 1 rig" and straw hats. The guards will present arms as the Alberta passes each ship, then rest on arms, reversed, until the procession has passed. A detachment of marines and the admirals will be on board Nelson's old flagship, the Victory, lying in Portsmouth harbor.

All the sea, front and dock yards will be manned by marines and sailors, while Barrow Island is to be manned by boys from the training ship St. Vincent and men from the gunnery ship Excellent.

The Spanish battleship Pelayo, Spain's representative at the funeral, is commanded by Capt. Diaz Moreau, who was commander of the Christopher Columbus, which was lost in the battle of Santiago.

Ottawa, Jan. 30.—(Special)—Premier Dunsuir will probably not go West until after the opening of parliament, but in the meanwhile he may visit New York and Toronto. Laurier intended leaving today for Victoria, but waits until to-morrow, at the request of the Minister of Railways, to present his views on British Columbia transportation to the committee of council.

MR. MAXWELL'S CHANCE. Report That He Will Be Given a Cabinet Position.

Vancouver, Jan. 30.—(Special)—Robert Kelly and prominent Liberals, who returned today from Ottawa, with G. R. Maxwell, M.P., declare that Sir Wilfrid Laurier has promised that British Columbia will be given cabinet representation immediately after the census is complete, Mr. Maxwell being the choice for the office. Sir Wilfrid Laurier having cancelled his Australia trip, will visit Klondike in June. He has asked for details of Canadian gold shipments to Seattle, with a view of exact knowledge towards the establishment of an assay office in Canada.

Kitchener Reports Fighting Forty Miles North of Thaba Nchu.

Wily Boer Is Making Another Attempt to Enter Cape Colony.

London, Jan. 30.—Lord Kitchener reports to the war office, under date of Pretoria, January 29, as follows:

"Dewet has been engaged by Knox 40 miles north of Thaba Nchu. No details.

"Dewet intends again attempting an invasion of Cape Colony.

"Smith-Dorrien has returned from Carolina, having dispersed the Boers.

"A force of Boers this morning entered Boysburg and damaged two mines. Commandant Marois is among the prisoners taken."

Calcutta, Jan. 30.—It is reported that Kitchener wishes to send 10,000 Boer prisoners to India. He proposes to locate them in the state of Nilgira, province of Risa, Bengal.

MUTINY AT ST. HELENA.

Story About Insurrection of West Indian Troops.

London, Jan. 30.—The West Indian troops stationed at the island of St. Helena, where Gen. Cronje and a large number of Boers are held prisoners, mutinied early in the month, raided the town, terrorized the inhabitants, injured many of them, defied their officers, and were subdued only when faced by the razzles of rifles. The censor suppressed the news, but the Associated Press has received the story by mail.

The trouble started with a row on the night of January 1 between some blue-jackets and a party of the West Indians. On the following night the West Indians broke out of barracks and raided the town with clubs and razors tied to sticks. They ran amuck, cutting and beating women, children and men, attacked the sailors and tore out the doors and windows. All the efforts of the officers to suppress the mutineers were futile. When ordered to the camp they refused to obey, and threatened to dynamite the town.

A strong naval force was then landed. The troops were collected, and the streets were patrolled and guarded all night long. At daybreak the troops were drawn up with loaded rifles in front of the place where the West Indians were barricaded. The latter were ordered to surrender, and were notified that if they did not do so they would be fired upon. The mutineers were cowed and allowed themselves to be taken to the camp, where they will remain under guard until a troopship shall arrive to relieve them.

THE DUKE OF YORK.

Not Seriously Ill But Cannot Attend the Queen's Funeral.

Cowes, Jan. 30.—It has been decided that, though the Duke of York's condition is not serious, he will be unable to attend the Queen's funeral.

Emperor William and the Duke of Connaught will step on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern on Friday night; while King Edward, Queen Alexandra and other members of the royal family will be distributed on board the royal yachts Osborne and Albert.

The deputy governor has ordered all business places on the island to be closed from 12 to 4 p.m. Friday.

London, Jan. 30.—King Charles of Portugal, with a large suite and accompanied from Dover by the Portuguese minister, Senor Pinto de Soveral, and his staff, reached Victoria station and was met by Prince Christian of Schleswig-Holstein, in behalf of King Edward, and by various officials of King Edward's household. His Majesty's equestrian delivered an autograph message from King Edward to King Charles, and the king and his suite were driven to Buckingham Palace. King Charles was warmly greeted by the crowds which gathered along the route in anticipation of his arrival. There was no military escort. Later in the day King Edward visited King Charles.

DEPRIVITY AMONG TROOPS.

Terrible Charges Against German Soldiers in China.

Berlin, Jan. 30.—A special despatch to the Cologne Volks Zeitung from China relates horrible details about the warfare in that country, and says: "We hope this awful condition will soon cease. The depravity among our troops is enormously on the increase. Large numbers of old soldiers are sentenced to long terms in the penitentiary and jail for murder, rape or burglary. Our losses are certainly greater that way than by death. Diseases are still rampant, especially typhoid."

BY-LAWS AND TENDERS.

Prolonged Meeting of City Council—Contracts Awarded For Civic Supplies.

The city council was in session until 11 o'clock last evening, considering the consolidated by-laws, awarding the tenders for supplies for the municipal institutions, and sitting as a streets, sewers and bridges committee to consider the many applications for improvements. The work of considering the consolidated by-laws was not completed, and another meeting will be held to-morrow evening. Tenders for supplies were opened, and the contracts awarded as follows: Groceries, L. Dickinson; meat, L. Goodacre; bread, M. R. Smith & Co.; milk, Mrs. Hooper; nails, P. McQuade & Sons; forage, Sylvester Feed Co.; castings, Victoria Machinery Depot; sidewalk doors, Marine Iron Works. The tender for lumber were all the same, there being four of them, and it was therefore decided not to award a contract, but to divide the business.

ONE WIFE ONLY.

Utah Agricultural Teachers and the Agricultural Bill.

Washington, Jan. 30.—The anti-polygamy crusade, which resulted in driving Mr. Roberts, Utah's representative, from his seat at the last session, had an echo in the house today, during the consideration of the agricultural bill. When the section making appropriations for agriculture colleges of the several states, was reached, Mr. Lunds, of Indiana, offered an amendment providing that no money should be paid to the college in Utah until the secretary of agriculture was satisfied that no trustee or teacher in the institution practised polygamy. The amendment caused a complete surprise. Mr. King, who succeeded Mr. Roberts, tried in vain to head it.

THE CHALLENGER.

Guessing as to How the Vessel Will Look When Completed.

Glasgow, Jan. 30.—The framework of the American's challenger, already set up, shows indications of some striking departures from conventional yacht designing. The most notable of these is that the bulk of the yacht is thrown forward, the mainmast being placed at the bow, instead of in the middle of the hull. The appearance will be modified, but it is certain that the greatest beam will be forward of the mast. Every precaution is taken to prevent information about the cup challenger getting abroad.

next summer is a very serious matter for Montreal. Heretofore the Grand Trunk has done its summer business from Montreal, but hereafter it will bring here only what is left after the Dominion line steamships are filled in Montreal. It is understood that the Dominion line will take vessels which run to Montreal last year, and in turn the Montreal service will receive other vessels. At the present time the owners, Richards, Mills & Co., have upon the docks of the Harland & Wolff yards, at Belfast, three vessels. It is hardly likely, however, that all three will be ready for service during the coming season. At the office of the Dominion line here, John Torrance stated that the ship he had ordered eventually have a service from Montreal, which would be second to none, but he was not sufficiently informed as to the company's plans to give any definite information as to how the Montreal service will be affected during the coming summer.

The San Francisco Chronicle has this to say of it: "The Colored Aristocracy minstrel entertainment last evening was witnessed by a large audience, who pronounced it the best given in this city in years. And several were enthusiastic enough to say that it is the best that has even been seen here."

Andrada Found

Piece of Teak With Name of Missing Vessel Cut in It.

Lumber, Oars and Tins of Salmon Picked Up Near Kyuquot.

Steamer Queen City returned from the West Coast last night, bringing news of the finding of more wreckage, but scattered and not sufficient to solve the mystery of what vessel it has come from. One piece of wreckage seems to indicate the fate of one of the long-missing vessels—the ship Andrada. Three or four days ago Lighthouse Keeper Daykin reports that he found a piece of teak, apparently the back part of a ship's boat, in which were cut the letters ANDRADA. This piece of teak, which was picked up by Mr. Daykin on Bonilla Point, is evidently from the back of one of the boats of the missing ship. The Andrada came into the Columbia about six weeks ago from Santa Rosalia in ballast, and took on board Pilot Cordier, who was known here, intending to cross the bar next morning. That night a gale blew and the vessel was not seen. It was thought that she had been driven north on the shore of this coast, but a close search made by the Queen City disproves this. It is considered more likely that she has turned turtle and been lost at sea.

Other wreckage was picked up on a small island a mile from Kyuquot. There, a pair of oars, lead color, about ten feet long, with the letter "H" stamped on each oar, were found. Also, a bundle of corn, brown, and number of various kinds, the beaches being littered for miles, both there and at various points all along the island coast. On the shore near Kyuquot was found more salmon, a number of tins being picked up with the other wreckage, all without labels. This was picked up by Indians two weeks ago. There is no clue to identify the vessel from which it came. As for the lumber, it is thought that the many deck loads washed away during the recent storms contributed a great portion of it.

The United States cutter Grant, which has started on her cruise of investigation, was seen at Clouose, and a number of sealing schooners were seen on the coast. The Ariotis and Penelope were at Kyuquot with crews aboard, ready, the former with 15 and the latter with 13, canoes; the Otto was to be ready in a few days, nearly all her crew being aboard. At Nootka, the schooners Annie E. Paint and Beatrice were waiting, the Indians not having made up their minds to go out at the price offered; the Alaska was in the same predicament. At Nanaimo, the schooner Vivia and Florence M. Smith were at Alhousiet, getting crews on board. The Allie I. Algar had four or five canoes at Clayquot; the Libbie and Zillah had eight canoes at Uclulet; the Victoria was at Clouose, and the Dawson, the Purple and Geneva at Village Island, and the Ida Etta and Teresa were at San Juan, all doing nothing. The Ocean Belle was passed in the Straits.

No one was brought from the Alberni mine by the steamer, but $900 in gold came down from Wreck Bay. Work there has been stopped on account of the high tides. Work has also been stopped at the Dewdney Canadian Syndicate property at Sidney Inlet, and Mr. Dewdney came down, bringing the stores from the camp. George Maynard arrived from the Monitor, H. E. Newton from the Golden Eagle, and several other mining men came down. The passenger list was as follows: J. M. Doherty, E. Dewdney, A. Engvik, A. Watson and wife, R. Corter, George Brown, H. F. Stannard, A. Ellis, W. M. Lawrence, C. P. Aston, A. E. Waterhouse, J. Vanslyke and wife, T. Goldman, T. Fletcher, W. Wambeck, O. M. Ramsey, O. C. Matheson, G. W. Grant, E. Folwell, H. E. Newton, G. W. Maynard, John Holtz.

The negotiations which the Colonist announced on Saturday were proceeding for the purchase by the White Pass & Yukon Railway Company of the five river steamers built by the C. P. At Seattle on Tuesday, Manager Hawkins closed the contract for the purchase of the Hamilton, Dawson, McConnell and Ozilvie. This will give the White Pass company 17 boats on the Yukon, and this may be increased by another in a few days, as they have an option on another of the C. P. R. steamers. The steamers purchased are practically new, two of them, the Dawson and Hamilton, having never been put in service and having never been under steam except for their trial trips. The McConnell and Ogilvie were used on the Stikine river for only part of a season, and as they have all been well cared for since, the boats are said to be in perfect order. Three of them are still at Wrangell and the Dawson is at Vancouver.

Mr. Hawkins sent despatches North to have the four boats "knocked down" and transported to White Horse with as little delay as possible. At White Horse they will be rebuilt and reconstructed on plans to suit the Yukon traffic. The contract for this work has been given to Hofius & Co., of Seattle, the plans having been prepared by Mr. Alex. Watson, of this city.

The present hulls will be discarded and new ones built for each boat, ranging in length from 160 to 165 feet. The boats will be built on a light draught plan, to meet the low water stage of the river, so that with 100 tons they will draw about thirty inches and not over thirty-eight inches, with from 200 to 250 tons of freight. Speed will be one of the objects to be attained, and each vessel will be so reconstructed as to be equal to a speed of from eleven and a half to fourteen knots an hour.

MARINE NOTES.

News comes from Eureka that the sealing schooner Uprina was spoken by the tug Ranger off the bar there on the 20th, with eight skins aboard.

Work is progressing favorably at New London on two steamers being built for the Great Northern, which will be the largest in the world. Each will carry the freight of 35 trains of 20 of the largest freight cars. They will be 630 feet long, have beam of 75 feet and have a displacement of 33,000 tons.

THE LUMBERING INDUSTRY.

The President of the Toronto Board of Trade struck the nail fairly on the head when he said in his inaugural speech yesterday:

"We must insist that the Dominion government shall adopt a tariff against lumber and all wooden products entering into competition, remove them from the free list and relieve the lumber industry from the unequal competition of lumber manufactured and freighted under more favorable conditions."

"To-day labor, machinery and mill supplies are higher in Canada than in the United States, and when low transportation rates on lumber are given from the Southern States, we in Ontario are placed in competition with the cheap colored labor of the South; and the lumbermen in New Ontario and British Columbia are at a disadvantage when competing with Oregon and Washington states for the trade of our prairie provinces. Advantages given and favors shown by the whole country to Manitoba while a young and struggling province are surely entitled to consideration, and that province, now being of age, may fairly be asked to adopt a general policy of government equally with other provinces."

Lumber and wood products were placed on the free list primarily for the benefit of the struggling agricultural population of Manitoba and the Territories, and the results are everywhere apparent in Central Canada. Where the farmer had to content himself with a shack are now to be seen comfortable, well-built farm houses, barns and stables, and the towns have assumed an aspect of stability that was impossible under the old tariff, which practically prohibited the importation of lumber.

Great good has been done by granting free lumber to the people who inhabit the treeless plains, but that has been effaced by the hardship which it entailed on the lumber trade of Canada generally. The people of the Maritime Provinces, Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia prohibited the importation of lumber.
They were all plentifully supplied by nature with a limitless supply of the raw material, and their mills and factories supplied all their wants at reasonable prices. The result of removing the import duty off lumber was therefore disastrous to those of their citizens who were engaged in the lumber business.

The United States manufacturers saw their opportunity, and used it to the best advantage. Under their high tariff all the machinery used in lumbering, and the manufacture of wooden goods, can be produced at a considerably less cost than in Canada, and consequently they were enabled to make the Dominion a slaughter-house for their surplus stock.
The lumber business in Canada was set back; less work was done in the woods; mills and factories, that had been working overtime, shut down or greatly reduced their output, and hundreds of men were left idle, and their families caused to suffer. This state of affairs has existed for some years now, and it is time that a powerful body like the Toronto Board of Trade should "insist" upon the government applying a remedy.

It seems monstrous that Canada, which has been called with truth a "wooden country," should be allowed to suffer a serious injury to one of her chief industries to benefit a small portion of her population. If Manitoba and the Territories must have cheap lumber—and it is generally conceded that it is necessary to their progress—surely the government can devise some better plan of securing it for them than by keeping a regulation in force which is sapping the life of a great industry.

Of all the provinces affected by this mistaken policy, British Columbia has suffered the most. Her position is peculiar from the fact that her lumbermen must procure a large portion of their plant in the United States. The Canadian manufacturers of lumbering machinery cater to the Eastern trade.

The machines they make are of good quality for the purpose for which they are designed, viz., to deal with the timber of the Eastern provinces; they are useless when put to the task of manufacturing the big timber of British Columbia. The United States machinery men learned the necessities of the West many years ago, and produce machines which are practically unknown in Eastern Canada; consequently British Columbia lumbermen have to buy from them and pay a high import duty upon nearly every article which they use in their business. Under such circumstances it is nothing to wonder at that the lumbering business of British Columbia has fallen to a low ebb. The mills have been restricted to supplying only a portion of the local demand, for with free lumber to compete with they find themselves undersold in their home market, and the long haul and high freight rates practically bar them out from the interior and the prairie country beyond the mountains. Mr. Wal-die's words will, therefore, be welcomed by the British Columbia lumbermen, and they should incite the boards of trade throughout the province to take immediate steps to co-operate with the Toronto and other Eastern boards in their efforts to secure such a readjustment of the tariff as will remove the disabilities from which our lumber trade is now suffering.

DIRTY MONEY.

The Province very pertinently calls attention to the dirty bank bills circulated in Canada. The foul rags which pass current are a disgrace to the banks which force the public to handle them.
Not long ago a bacteriologist took the trouble to examine one of these post-laden promises to pay, and the result was the discovery of more millions of microbes than would girdle the earth.
There can be little question that many diseases are transmitted through the handling of this dirty money, and steps should be taken to mitigate the evil by insisting upon the banks disinfecting their bills or issuing new ones every time they come back to their hands.
The extra expense of printing new bills should not be considered where human life is jeopardized by the circulation of infected notes. As a matter of fact, the Dominion government is the worst offender, for all the bills of small denomination are issued by it and supplied to the banks. The government should therefore set an example by putting a limit on the life of every Dominion and chartered bank bill, and decree that no disfigured or dirty bill shall be kept in circulation. The Medical Association of Canada might properly deal with this question, and make such recommendations to the government as the result of its investigations warranted.

BOB'S CHIVALRY.

How a Boer Who Aided Wounded Men
Was Given Liberty.

The following is the latest "Bob's" story, showing the magnanimity of the great man. A correspondent of the Times says: "Mr. William Holmes, son of Lord Justice Holmes, has given me leave to communicate a story which illustrates in a very striking manner Lord Robert's chivalrous generosity towards a worthy foe. Mr. Holmes is one of the many young Irish barristers who joined the Dublin Hunt Company of the Imperial Yeomanry and took part in the affair at Lindley. In the last desperate bayonet charge of the company, the same in which the son of the Irish Master of the Rolls was killed, Mr. Holmes was shot through the leg and lay for some hours on the battlefield. During all that time he was tended by a Boer named Vandershuis, who treated him with extreme kindness, and after midnight walked for four miles in search of a wagon on which to bring Mr. Holmes into Lindley. On the following day Lord Methuen recovered the town and Mr.
Holmes was given over to the care of British doctors and nurses. It was found necessary to amputate his leg, and he lay for many weeks in hospital.
Meanwhile his friend Vandershuis, who had gone on commando with Prinsloo, surrendered with that general, and was deported to Ceylon. From there he addressed a letter to Mr. Holmes in Dublin reminding him of their acquaintance at Lindley and expressing an earnest desire for permission to return home. In the absence of Mr. Holmes, who was still in South Africa, the letter reached Lord Roberts with an assurance that his statements were quite correct. Last week the Lord Justice received a reply in which Lord Roberts said that he had read with particular appreciation of the Boer's kindness to Mr. Holmes, and had given immediate directions that Mr.
Vandershuis should be brought back from Ceylon to South Africa and reinstated in his rank."

TESTIMONIALS AND REFERENCES.

AFTER 30 YEARS SUFFERING, NO

New Westminster, July 17, 1900.

CORRESPONDENCE.

To the Editor of the News-Advertiser:

Sir—I will thank you very much if you will kindly give me space in your valuable paper for the following, which I think will be interesting to thousands of sufferers from rheumatism. For the last thirty years I have been tortured night and day;
the last ten years of which it had become chronic. I have sometimes been in such agony that I was almost compelled to groan; I have taken all sorts of drugs and also medical-electric appliances; all of which did me no good; finally, I saw the remarkable cures effected by the Chinese Root Rheumatic Cure sold by Mr. E. Cumyov, Columbia Street, New Westminster, B. C.
I applied for the same, and the result is to-day that I have no pain whatever; I can now sleep soundly all night, which is worth far more than the cost of the cure. None but sufferers can appreciate this.

FRENCH PUNISHMENT.

Brutal Methods of Dealing With Small Offenders.

From Favorite Magazine.

Officially speaking, there is no corporal punishment allowed in the French army, but poor little "Dummet," or "Picton," as the French "Downy" is called, knows painfully better when he has once been flogged by the French. Here, in England, we consider flogging the only form of corporal punishment, but, as the saying goes, there are more ways of killing a dog than by hanging him, and in the French army, as well as in the French navy, the official hint is not forgotten. The wretched man, for whatever trivial offence he has committed, is thrown by his comrades into a blanket, with jack-boots, sabres, spurs, bayonets, and suchlike, and tossed in the air until he is half-dead. This proves to be great sport for the man who is howling with pain, and if the "comrades" are half-drunk. However, this diversion seems not to be so much in favor now, as the attention of the military authorities has been called to the cases where the victim dared to die from his injuries.

In some barracks rooms a favorite form of punishment for a man of whom his comrades have to complain is to hang him up to the ceiling by his heels, and then to cob him with a sword-bayonet. But corporal punishments are inflicted more especially on the Algerian troops, when the men are more freely at the disposal of their superior tormentors and far away from any one who could take their cases in hand. They are almost entirely at the mercy of their chiefs, either officers or non-commissioned officers, whose wits are more or less sordid with all kinds of alcohol, particularly absinthe.

The Silo was at one time much in vogue among the penal refinements in Algeria. It consisted in putting the men in deep holes, in the shape of a reversed funnel, dug in the ground by the Arabs to prevent the corn. They were left there for days with hardly anything to eat or drink, and exposed all the time to the heat of the sun, while at night the place was unbearable for cold. Many have died of hunger, thirst, or cold, almost entombed alive, while others have become insane. These repeated facts opened the eyes of the military authorities, who have tried to abolish this cruel punishment. However, it still exists in the southern and isolated parts of Algeria, where no eye can see.

Some years ago Prince Pignatelli d'Arango, a young Spanish noble, ran away to Algeria to join the Foreign Legion, that reformation peccatorum, as he was tired of life, having been disappointed in a love affair. His friends announced his arrival to the French military authorities, but the disappointed lover never presented himself. At last a soldier suggested that perhaps a traveller who could not speak much French, and had come into camp some five days before to enlist in the Foreign Legion, was a prince. The sergeant to whom the stranger had spoken was drunk at the time, and becoming annoyed at the Spaniard's broken French, had ordered him to be placed in a "vile" without more ado. Here the unfortunate prince remained without eating or drinking for two days, and then a good-hearted sentry broke the rules and gave him some bread for fear he might be starved to death. As soon as he was released, the prince started for Spain, completely cured of his love affair and his martial determination. Another corporal punishment which was greatly in favor in Algeria, even as late as the "seventies," was the Carcan. A piece of wood, generally the trunk of a tree, was used; the man was laid on it so that the middle of his back would be resting on the wood bringing the head and feet down to the ground, and then his stretched wrists were attached to an iron bar, and his feet to another. The body, placed face upwards, was during the whole time of the punishment exposed to the terrible ardor of the sun. Some men have been kept in such a torturing position for as much as twelve hours at a stretch. The Carcanine is also frequently used, even at the present time, in all French colonies, amongst the colonial troops. It consists of throwing the man face downwards and tightly tying his wrists and ankles with ropes behind his back, in such a way that wrists and ankles are joined together.
